

Southgate Street, Bury St. Edmunds

Sheridans

Recently restored grade II listed town house with charming south facing garden, off road parking and situated only a short stroll to the town centre and Abbey Gardens.

Understood to have been built in the 17th century as a much larger house and extended in more recent years, this surprising town house provides beautifully presented accommodation, successfully fusing period character and modern living. The well-proportioned rooms offer high ceilings and large windows creating a light and airy atmosphere, coupled with features including magnificent Inglenook fireplaces, exposed beams and traditional Ledge and Brace internal doors.

The ground floor comprises of a well-equipped kitchen/dining room, superb sitting room as well as a cloakroom and pantry with access to a large cellar.

On the first floor the splendid newly fitted bathroom has a traditional feel with a modern twist with large bath and large Burlington Guild wash basin and wash stand. The landing with access to large loft space, accesses the two bedrooms including the spacious dual aspect principal bedroom, completing the accommodation.

Outside

To the side of the house is a charming south facing garden providing a sun trap and ideal outdoor area for entertaining and relaxing during the summer months, and a wooden garden shed for storage. A gate leads to a single pea shingle off street parking space. To the back there is a small gated pea shingle storage area for bicycles or garden equipment.

Location

Bury St Edmunds is one of Suffolk's most sought-after market towns, combining historic charm with excellent modern amenities. Renowned for its Cathedral, vibrant cultural scene, theatres, cinemas, restaurants and attractive green spaces, the town offers an outstanding quality of life. A traditional market operates twice weekly, complemented by a wide range of independent shops, cafés and national retailers.

The town benefits from excellent schooling, a strong community atmosphere and superb transport links, with easy access to Cambridge, Ipswich and beyond via the A14, as well as regular rail services.
