Property Description

An outstanding example of a Grade II listed Georgian family home, benefitting from a garden, which backs directly onto St Paul's Shubbery, spanning c 3,000 sqft. Accommodation is beautifully presented and comprises; a grand entrance hallway, which leads to the light filled dual reception space (complete with two original fireplace's), courtesy of the large sash windows. The rear reception space enjoys a serene view across the landscaped, South facing rear garden, which features a summer house, that could be converted into a gym or home office, along with a hot tub.

The garden offers complete privacy and a feel of countryside living in central London. There is an additional study space on the lower split level, which provides further garden access, as well as a W.C, with beautiful marble sink, and further side/garden access. The bespoke kitchen/dining space occupies the lower level, featuring a large island with an impressive marble top. The dining space is set behind. There are two large double bedrooms and bathroom suite on the first floor, with a guest room and shower room on the half landing. The principal bedroom occupies the top floor, with an en-suite and dressing area. It should be noted that there is off street parking for three cars.

Northampton Park is a wide, tree lined street, moments from the peace and tranquillity of the New River Walk, whilst retaining convenient access to the community focal point of the local shops on Canonbury Place, and within close proximity of the shops, bars and restaurants of Upper Street. Transport can be found at Highbury & Islington station (Victoria Line, London Overground and National Rail) with fabulous connections to the City and West End.
