SITUATION

This superbly located home is situated on the edge of the sought-after and exclusive village of Crapstone, just outside of Dartmoor National Park. Open moorland is accessible immediately from the doorstep, which offers incredible opportunities for walking, riding or cycling, for those with active families or energetic pets, or who otherwise enjoy an outdoors-oriented lifestyle.

Crapstone is within easy reach of Yelverton (1 mile) and the town of Tavistock (6 miles), and within commutable distance of Plymouth city centre (10 miles), including the catchment of Derriford Hospital (6.5 miles) and the city's schooling options. Yelverton provides a mini-supermarket, butchers, delicatessen, cafe and pharmacy, plus a GP Surgery, Texaco fuel station, Post Office and Veterinary Surgery, and golf, cricket, tennis and bowling clubs. The thriving town of Tavistock offers a superb range of shops, schools and recreational facilities, including the sought-after private and independent school, Mount Kelly.

DESCRIPTION

This handsome and appealing, three-storey, end-terrace period home is full of traditional details and charm, and, having been in our clients' ownership for a decade, is now offered for sale with no onward chain.

Internally, the house offers comfort, character and convenience in equal measure, with the accommodation comprising five double bedrooms, a bathroom and en-suite, a pretty, open-plan reception room and a sizeable kitchen/dining room, plus a useful utility and cloakroom, totalling almost 2,000 sq.ft in all. Externally, the house is complete with an enclosed rear garden, garage and off-road parking space, and it also benefits from having had a new roof in December 2025, and enjoys an open, verdant outlook at the front.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation, which features traditional plasterwork, exposed floorboards, high skirting, detailed architraves and original cupboards, extends to almost 2,000sqft in all and can be summarised as follows: a tiled entrance porch; an inner hallway with stairs to the first floor; a beautiful, bay-fronted sitting room centered around logburner on a slate hearth, with an archway through to a dining room where there are French windows to a small courtyard, a good-sized, contemporary kitchen/dining room, fitted with modern cupboards and cabinets with black granite worktops and featuring a Smeg range-style cooker; a dedicated utility room leading out to the rear garden; a ground-floor WC; three first-floor double bedrooms, including the generous, front-facing master bedroom which has its own en-suite; the standalone family bathroom and adjacent WC, and; two further second-floor double bedrooms.

OUTSIDE

Extending away from the rear of the house is a long, enclosed rear garden and paved patio, with a timber shed at the far end. To the side of the house is an attached garage, in front of which is a parking space.

SERVICES

All mains-supplied services. Gas-fired central heating. Ultrafast broadband is available.
