Southern Road

Thame, Oxfordshire

Perfectly positioned in a highly sought-after location, just a stone's throw from the picturesque and vibrant town centre and Cuttlebrook Nature Reserve, this rarely available three-bedroom semi-detached family home offers charm, character, and convenience.

Presented to the market with no onward chain, the property boasts a spacious and light-filled layout, enhanced by high ceilings and large windows throughout.

The welcoming entrance hall leads into a bright and generous kitchen/dining room, featuring a useful utility space and bi-folding doors opening onto the rear garden. The dining area flows seamlessly into the spacious sitting room, complete with a feature fireplace, while a modern wet room completes the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. The converted loft provides a versatile additional space, ideal for a study or home office.

Externally, the block-paved driveway has been attractively landscaped, offering off-street parking and a garage, while the rear garden is designed for low-maintenance enjoyment.
