SITUATION

This beautiful home extends to 0.43 acres with fabulous views nestling in Long Load, a popular South Somerset village, which lies approximately 4 miles to the South East of Langport and mostly consists of individual properties. Facilities include the village hall and the well patronised Long Sutton Golf Club (less than 1 mile distant). There are numerous walks to be had along the river and across the moors. The Devonshire Arms is nearby in Long Sutton, along with a church and a primary school.

The small historic town of Langport lies around 4 miles to the east and benefits from independent stores, well acclaimed schools including Huish Episcopi Academy, a café, and a Tesco Supermarket as well as the convenience of a doctors, dentist and veterinary surgery.

Somerton is a lovely town, 3 miles distant, with a wide 17th Century Market Square with a Buttercross as a focal point in the centre. The Market Square itself is surrounded by the old town hall, elegant houses and inns which create an attractive townscape drawing visitors from all over the world. Somerton's Market Place has a Grade II Listed Market Cross in the centre, described by Niklaus Pevsner, as "one of the most happily grouped urban pictures in Somerset". The parish church dedicated to St. Michael is quite plain externally but contains one of the finest wooden roofs in the county carved by the monks at Muchelney Abbey. The town is also well provided with many shops, doctors, dentists, co-op store, boutique shops and an indoor precinct.

Martock is a pretty, thriving village with many attractive, honey coloured Hamstone houses and cottages centred around the magnificent parish church. The village has an excellent range of facilities, including a doctor's surgery, post office, hotel and pub, dentist, supermarket, newsagent, bakers and library amongst other things.

Yeovil, being the regional centre, offers a wide range of excellent shopping, business and cultural facilities. There are four supermarkets, schools from primary through to secondary and the Yeovil College within easy reach. Regular bus services run within the town, also serving nearby villages and neighbouring towns. A mainline railway station will be found at Yeovil Junction, and good road links to the A30, A303 and A37 are all close by. The M5 junction 23 is approximately 20 miles away, and the South Coast is approximately 25 miles.
