IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Your open plan kitchen/living room is a brilliantly sized space - there's engineered parquet flooring sweeping the length and a thoughtful neutral colour palette. The kitchen area features sleek units, sparkling worktops and integrated appliances, which will make hosting a breeze. As for the balcony, it'll be a great extension of the living space, especially with those views. Being on the third floor also means you can enjoy the energy efficiency that comes with living at height.

The two bedrooms are both just as plush as the rest of the apartment, with immaculate decor. One has built-in storage and its own Juliet-balcony.

The bathroom is smart and contemporary, while the hallway is spacious with built-in storage.

Within a short hop of your building you have some excellent food and drink options, including ramen joint Tonkotsu and sourdough specialist Today Bread, which is situated with in the iconic Central Parade building, home to some excellent independent stores and studios.

Just as close to home, you've got Europe's longest market which runs along Walthamstow High Street and the convenient chains found in the newly-developed the 17&Central shopping centre, which also has a fantastic food court operated by CRATE. Mere moments away you also have Forest cinema, perfect for movie nights.

If you need to escape further afield, Walthamstow Central station is almost on your doorstep, and served by both the Victoria line and Overground, so double the convenience.

WHAT ELSE?

- Despite all this urban living, you're actually still surrounded by greenery; Lloyd Park is walking distance, where you'll also find the William Morris Gallery, the former home of Walthamstow's most famous son and a great place for rotating exhibitions.
- Walthamstow Village is just a short stroll away, offering even more food and drink options, such as the Queens Arms pub and E17 store ('London's poshest Spar' according to the Evening Standard).
- Soho Theatre Walthamstow, the 1,000-seat performance venue, is now open just a hop from your front door. This vibrant space hosts an exciting mix of theatre, comedy, music, and live events, bringing top-quality entertainment right to your neighbourhood. You can also enjoy some excellent entertainment at the wonderfully eclectic Trades Hall, a favoured spot for renowned comedians to perform warm-up sets. Ye Olde Rose & Crown also puts on some excellent shows, including annual pantos.
