LOWER GROUND FLOOR

Measurements – 8'3" x 7'8"

Taking the stone stairwell from the lounge, you reach the lower ground floor, which has shelving over the staircase providing storage. A kite winding stone stairwell then leads to a fabulous, vaulted ceiling cellar where there is lighting in situ, fitted shelving, recessed stone shelving and the original stone keeping table and with Yorkshire stone flags.

FIRST FLOOR LANDING

Taking the staircase from the entrance, you reach the first-floor landing, which has a ceiling light point, a wooden banister with spindle balustrade over the stairwell head and multi-panel doors give access to two bedrooms.

BEDROOM ONE

Measurements – 15'0" x 8'9"

Bedroom one is a fabulous, proportioned light and airy double bedroom which has an array of period charm and character features, with two sets of stone mullioned windows to the front elevation, which has views across neighbouring fields. There is an exposed timber truss on display, exposed timber floorboards, and the focal point of the room is the decorative cast iron fireplace with exposed stone surround. The principal bedroom has two ceiling light points, two radiators, and a loft hatch gives access to a useful attic space.

BEDROOM TWO

Measurements – 8'9" x 6'0"

Bedroom two is a single bedroom which could be utilised as a home office or nursery. It features a bank of stone mullioned windows to the rear elevation with breathtaking far-reaching views across the property's gardens over the valley. There is a partly exposed timber truss on display, a ceiling light point and radiator. Please note, this area could be utilised as an office landing, as the example floor layout plan suggests, if both cottages are to be incorporated into one dwelling.

EXTERNAL

Externally to the front, there is a Tarmacadam area providing off-street parking to the front of number 21. Between the cottages is a stone flagged patio area, ideal for sitting out. A gate down the side of the property then encloses the rear garden. Following the pathway down the side of the property you reach the rear garden which features a stone flagged patio which leads onto a beautiful brick cobbled garden area which is low maintenance and enjoys the sun throughout most of the day and is a great space for alfresco dining, barbecuing and entertainment. It then leads on into the main portion of the garden, which is particularly well stocked with flowers and shrub beds and with a lawn that meanders through the various trees and shrubs. There is a stone flagged patio area to the middle of the garden, which is particularly private and sheltered. Following the lawn, there is a further flagged patio area with space for pots and plants, a hard standing for a summer house and finally, to the back of the garden is a private lawn with flower tree and shrub beds and attractive dry stone wall boundaries.

To the rear of number 19 Cross Lane, is a hard standing which is home to a freestanding workshop which has lighting and power in situ. The workshop has a pedestrian access door from the side elevation with banks of windows providing natural light and this could be utilised as a garden office if so required.

GARDNERS W.C.

Accessed externally, outside of number 21 Cross Lane, there is a gardener's w.c. which features a low-level w.c and a cold-water tap. There are part tiled walls, a ceiling light point and double-glazed window with obscure glass to the side elevation.
