ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Asking Price - £900,000 to £925,000.

A beautifully refurbished Edwardian home in the heart of Greenwich. Meticulously restored, this period home pairs heritage detail with modern comfort.

Located in a conservation area, the house retains its beautiful original coloured glass windows, and sits just minutes from Greenwich Park, Maze Hill station, town centre and riverside pubs.

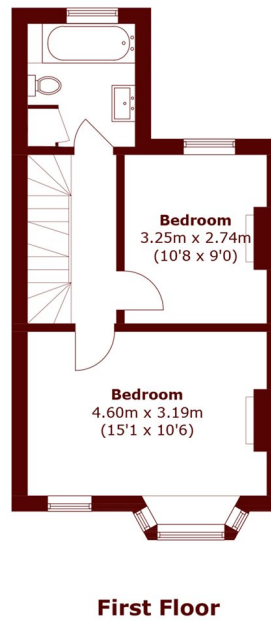

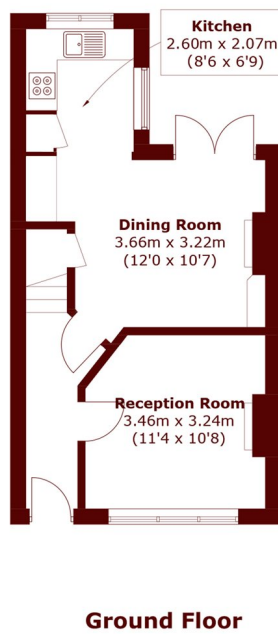

FURTHER DETAILS

The elegant living room features a stunning tiled fireplace, while the bespoke kitchen/diner has a cast-iron fireplace, quartz worktops, larder storage and boiling-water tap. French doors open to a sunny, south facing courtyard garden complete with an electric awning, irrigation, lighting, and a brick store.

On the top two floors are three double bedrooms with fireplaces and quality carpeting, two stylish fully-tiled bathrooms with high-spec smart toilets, utility cupboard, and a boarded loft. Additional premium finishes include restored ornate plasterwork, column radiators, bespoke plantation shutters, USB sockets, oak herringbone floors, water softener, and farrow & ball paint.
