TAKE A LOOK AROUND

Inside, you are welcomed by a traditional vestibule and a bright hall with built-in storage. The living room is on the right. Pairing light blue décor with white detailing and wooden floorboard, it has an elegant look that immediately catches the eye thanks to its period cornice work, picture rail, and feature mantelpiece set beside a display cabinet. A south-facing bay window floods the room in warm sunlight, adding to the airy ambience. In the large dining kitchen, there is plenty of room for a table and chairs alongside a generously appointed range of wood-toned cabinets and sweeping worktops in stone effect. Tasteful splashback tiles complete the attractive design bringing a subtle touch of colour to the aesthetic. A neighbouring utility room supplements the kitchen. Completing the ground-floor is a white-tiled four-piece bathroom (with a bath and shower cubicle).
