£360,000

Bedrooms 3 Bathrooms 2

There is a certain feeling you get the moment you arrive at this home on Weir Way, a sense of calm, space and possibility. The driveway sweeps up to a handsome modern façade, where neat landscaping frames the house with subtle charm. Step through the front door and you are met not just with a property, but with a lifestyle filled with light filled rooms, a garden designed for laughter and long summer evenings, and even a dedicated office that makes working from home feel effortless. Built in 2017 and lovingly maintained, this detached three bedroom house is the perfect blend of sleek modern design and homely warmth.

Inside, the hallway greets you with brightness and order. The crisp white walls, which flow throughout the home, lend a minimalist elegance, while a practical storage cupboard and guest cloakroom add function to form. To the right, the lounge beckons, a generous front facing space where a wide bay window invites the sunlight to pour in, creating a room equally suited to lively family evenings or quiet moments of retreat.

At the rear, the home reveals its true heart. The kitchen and dining area span the full width of the property, designed with a clean, modern aesthetic that balances style with practicality. Sleek fitted units, an integrated NEFF fridge freezer, and ample worktop space make cooking a pleasure, while there is plenty of room for a family dining table. It is easy to picture weekend breakfasts with the patio doors thrown open, or late night suppers that flow seamlessly into the garden.

Upstairs, the sense of light and calm continues. The principal bedroom offers more than just a place to sleep. With its Hammonds wardrobes and drawers, it feels like a carefully considered sanctuary. Its en suite shower room is fresh and contemporary, ensuring both privacy and convenience. The second bedroom, a comfortable double, is perfect for children or guests, while the third is a versatile single room that could be a nursery, study or hobby space. Completing the floor is a sparkling family bathroom with a crisp white three piece suite and shower over bath.

Yet it is beyond the back doors where this home truly comes into its own. The garden is larger than most, thoughtfully landscaped with a wide lawn for children to play and a patio area ready for evening barbecues and lazy Sundays in the sun. To the side, the garage has been transformed into a professional grade office, complete with heating, electrics and internet, an invaluable addition for those who want the ease of a commute measured in footsteps. The front section of the garage remains available for storage, offering the best of both worlds.

Set in a quiet and friendly neighbourhood, this property also shines in terms of location. Binley is known for its welcoming community, excellent schools and easy access to everyday essentials. Shops, parks and public transport are all close by, while commuters will appreciate the swift links to the A46, M6 and beyond. Coventry city centre, with its wealth of shopping, dining and culture, is only a short drive away.

Immaculate, move in ready and filled with natural light, this home offers the space and flexibility modern life demands. Whether you are a growing family looking for room to put down roots, or professionals seeking a stylish home with the bonus of a fully functioning office, this property on Weir Way is ready to welcome you in.
