The Row, Weeting, Brandon

A charming two bedroom GRADE II LISTED THATCHED COTTAGE in Weeting, blending PERIOD CHARACTER, modern touches & STUNNING GARDENS with an exceptional outdoor entertaining space!

Summary

Steeped in character & believed to date back to the 18th century, this enchanting Grade II listed thatched cottage offers a rare opportunity to own a true piece of quintessential English history in the heart of Weeting.

Forming part of a picturesque row of similar cottages, the home effortlessly blends timeless charm with thoughtful modern enhancements. Positioned centrally within the village, a range of amenities are close at hand, including a pub, village shop, fish & chip shop, petrol station & primary school, while the nearby market town of Brandon provides supermarkets, schools & direct rail links to Cambridge and Norwich.

Inside, the cottage radiates warmth & personality throughout. The sitting room is both cosy & inviting, centred around a striking fireplace with log burner - the perfect backdrop for winter evenings. A separate dining room offers flexibility as a home office or potential third bedroom, while the modern kitchen has been sympathetically styled & features a breakfast bar alongside ample space for appliances. An adjoining utility room & ground floor bathroom add further practicality. Upstairs, two generous double bedrooms continue the cottage's welcoming feel.

The gardens are a true highlight! Designed for both relaxation & entertaining, the rear space combines a generous patio, lawned areas & a beautifully sheltered BBQ area complete with its own outdoor kitchen - creating an exceptional setting for long summer evenings and gatherings!
