Description

This charming Victorian terrace property effortlessly combines period charm with generous living space, making it an ideal home for families or those seeking a versatile layout in a desirable location.

The property is filled with natural light from the attractive bay windows and enjoys beautiful views from the impressive main living room. A separate dining room provides the perfect space for entertaining, while the breakfast room flows seamlessly into the kitchen, offering a practical and sociable space for everyday living. A convenient downstairs WC completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, the property has three spacious double bedrooms, each offering comfort and flexibility. A well-appointed shower room serves the upper floor, alongside the added benefit of a kitchenette, which is ideal for guests, multi-generational living, or potential rental opportunities.

Externally, the property benefits from a good-sized rear garden, offering excellent potential for landscaping and improvement

With its blend of period features, generous proportions, and versatile accommodation, this delightful home presents a rare opportunity to acquire a characterful property with scope to add further value.

Location

Ashley Down is understandably, one of the city's most sought-after locations, offering a perfect balance of suburban convenience and access to open green spaces such as St Andrews Park and Muller Road Recreation Ground. The nearby areas of Gloucester Road, Bishopston, and Horfield provide an excellent range of amenities, including supermarkets, independent shops, restaurants, and pubs.

The area is also well served by a selection of highly regarded schools, including Ashley Down Primary School, which was rated Outstanding by Ofsted.

In addition, Ashley Down benefits from excellent transport links, making it easy to travel both into the city centre and further afield.
