Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

The Hoe

The property is situated within close proximity to the waterfront of historic Plymouth Hoe, with its stunning views across one of the world's largest natural harbours, and close to the Barbican, which boasts an array of specialist shops, restaurants, cafés, the National Marine Aquarium and the world's oldest gin distillery. The whole area has a distinctly European feel because of the marinas, al fresco pavement cafés and waterfront bars and restaurants. Local transport links are nearby, giving access to Plymouth City Centre and other areas further afield. The city hosts world-class events such as the Americas Cup World Series and the British Art Show, as well as its own unique events such as the British Fireworks Championships and the Barbican Jazz and Blues Festival.

More Property Information

The good-sized bathroom complements the apartment's overall appeal, ensuring comfort and convenience for its residents. This property is an ideal choice for first-time buyers, as it comes with no onward chain and a long lease, allowing for a smooth transition into your new home. Its prime location means you are just a stone's throw away from the vibrant amenities of The Hoe waterfront and the charming Barbican area, offering a variety of shops, restaurants, and leisure activities. In summary, this exquisite apartment is move-in ready and presents a wonderful opportunity to enjoy a lifestyle in one of the most desirable locations in the area. Don't miss your chance to make this beautiful property your new home.
