DESCRIPTION

Set within a truly spectacular rural position overlooking the Glyn Ceiriog Valley, The Granary is a highly individual three-bedroom, three-reception link-detached former granary offering an exceptional lifestyle opportunity, combining characterful accommodation with extensive land, equestrian facilities and proven holiday-let income.

The main house provides well-proportioned and versatile accommodation arranged over two floors, extending to approximately 1,806 sq ft. The layout centres around a generous sitting room and a well-appointed kitchen/dining room, complemented by further reception space including a conservatory and an additional family/games room, creating excellent flexibility for everyday living, entertaining or home working. There are three comfortable bedrooms served by bathroom facilities, with many rooms enjoying far-reaching countryside views across the surrounding valley.

Externally, the property is approached via a private drive with ample parking and opens out into approximately 6 acres of mixed land, including pasture, grazing fields, an additional paddock and areas of woodland intersected by a natural stream, creating a particularly attractive and private setting. The land is ideally suited to equestrian or smallholding use and includes a range of substantial outbuildings extending to approximately 2,310 sq ft, comprising three stables, two hay barns and a feed room, together with further barn space offering scope for storage, workshops or alternative uses (subject to any necessary consents).

A particular feature of the property is the successful shepherd's hut holiday let, providing an established and valuable supplementary income stream while making full use of the outstanding landscape and visitor appeal of the Ceiriog Valley. Enjoying peace, privacy and breath taking scenery, yet remaining accessible to Llangollen and the wider North Wales and Shropshire border region, The Granary represents a rare opportunity to acquire a character home with land, income potential and unrivalled views in one of the area's most picturesque settings.

OUTSIDE

The Granary is approached via a private driveway providing ample off-road parking and access to the principal residence, outbuildings and land. The property sits within approximately 6 acres of attractive, gently sloping countryside comprising two grazing fields, an additional paddock, areas of mature woodland and pasture, all enjoying a high degree of privacy and far-reaching views across the Glyn Ceiriog Valley.

A natural stream meanders through part of the land, enhancing the setting and biodiversity, while the mix of open pasture and wooded areas offers excellent scope for equestrian use, smallholding interests or lifestyle buyers seeking space and seclusion.

The equestrian facilities are a real asset and include three stables, two hay barns and a separate feed room, arranged for practical day-to-day use. In addition, there are further substantial barns and outbuildings, providing generous storage, workshop space or potential for alternative uses, subject to the necessary consents.

Set slightly apart is a successful shepherd's hut holiday let, discreetly positioned to take full advantage of the outlook and surroundings, offering an established income stream while maintaining privacy from the main house.

Overall, the outside space at The Granary is a standout feature, combining usable land, excellent facilities and exceptional scenery, making it ideally suited to equestrian, leisure or rural lifestyle use.

SITUATION

The Granary occupies a superb rural position within the Glyn Ceiriog valley, enjoying privacy, open countryside and far-reaching views. The nearby village offers everyday amenities, while the popular market town of Llangollen is a short drive away, providing a wider range of shops, schools and leisure facilities. The area is renowned for walking, riding and outdoor pursuits, with good road links connecting to Oswestry, Wrexham and beyond.

DIRECTIONS

From Oswestry, take the A5 west towards Llangollen. After leaving Oswestry, turn off signposted for Glyn Ceiriog and follow the road through the village, continuing into the Ceiriog Valley. Proceed along the valley road for a short distance, where the property will be found on the left-hand side, clearly identified as The Granary, Pant Farm.

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING (AML) CHECKS

We are legally obligated to undertake anti-money laundering checks on all property purchasers. Whilst we are responsible for ensuring that these checks, and any ongoing monitoring, are conducted properly; the initial checks will be handled on our behalf by a specialist company, Movebutler, who will reach out to you once your offer has been accepted. The charge for these checks is £30 (including VAT) per purchaser, which covers the necessary data collection and any manual checks or monitoring that may be required. This cost must be paid in advance, directly to Movebutler, before a memorandum of sale can be issued, and is non-refundable. We thank you for your cooperation.
