The property is believed to have been built circa 1934 and is of traditional brick cavity wall construction beneath a pitched tiled roof, typical of properties of this period. The accommodation is well proportioned and arranged over two floors. The layout provides a practical arrangement of living space with two reception rooms to the ground floor together with a kitchen, pantry and utility area. To the first floor are three bedrooms and a family bathroom. The property also benefits from useful storage areas together with a ground floor cloakroom.

Externally, the property benefits from a driveway providing ample off-road parking together with a detached single garage. The gardens are well established and arranged into a number of areas including lawned sections, a vegetable plot and a pond, together with spaces suitable for seating and outdoor entertaining.

Ground Floor

The property is entered via the front entrance door into a central hallway featuring wood flooring and a staircase rising to the first floor. The hallway provides access to the principal ground floor rooms and retains character typical of properties of this period.

The lounge is situated to the front of the property and benefits from a bay window allowing good natural light into the room. This comfortable reception space also features an attractive original fireplace with decorative tiled surround and wooden mantel, forming a focal point within the room.

The dining room is a particularly spacious second reception room located to the rear of the property. The room enjoys views over the garden and provides ample space for a dining table and chairs, making it well suited for both everyday family use and entertaining. A fireplace further enhances the character of the room.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units providing storage and preparation space and retains a practical layout for everyday use. A traditional AGA cooker is set within a recessed tiled surround, creating an attractive focal point within the kitchen and adding further character. There is also access to a useful internal store providing additional household storage.

A doorway from the kitchen leads through to the adjoining utility room which offers additional workspace together with further space for household appliances and access to the outside.

Also located on the ground floor is a useful storage area together with a cloakroom fitted with WC facilities.

First Floor

The staircase rises to the first-floor landing with doors leading to the three bedrooms and family bathroom.

The principal bedroom is a generously proportioned double room located to the rear of the property, benefiting from built-in wardrobes together with a feature fireplace adding character. Bedroom two is another well-proportioned double room enjoying a pleasant outlook to the front through a large bay window which provides excellent natural light and space for a seating area.

Bedroom three is a comfortable single bedroom positioned to the rear of the property with fitted shelving providing useful storage. The room could also be utilised as a study or home office if required.

The family bathroom is fitted with a suite comprising panelled bath with shower over, wash hand basin and WC. A window to the side allows for natural light and ventilation. The room also benefits from a range of built-in cupboards providing useful additional storage.

A further storage room off the landing, set within the eaves of the roof provides useful additional storage space.

Outside

Externally the property benefits from a well-proportioned garden offering a variety of outdoor spaces. To the side of the property there is a pond feature together with a long vegetable plot, providing excellent potential for kitchen gardening. The rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn with a range of mature shrubs and planting, creating several distinct seating and socialising areas from which to enjoy the south-west facing aspect. There is also a separate brick-built outbuilding offering useful workshop or storage potential.

A 2.5kW Proven wind turbine is installed which has the potential to provide a renewable source of energy generation for the property
