

The Avenue, KT5

£429,950

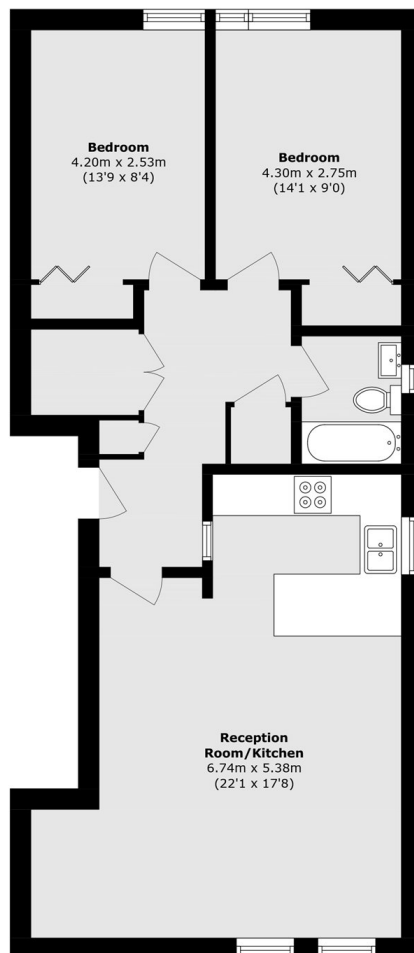

A spacious and bright, first floor, purpose built apartment, offering plenty of storage throughout. This property offers a generous footprint with two double bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes and a modern bathroom. The main living area is well presented with an integrated kitchen, a living area and a dining space. The large windows flood this property with natural light. To the rear of this property is a large communal garden and there is also an allocated, under ground parking space.

Within 0.8 miles of Surbiton town centre and the mainline train station with fast links to Waterloo, the shops, bars and amenities of Victoria Road are all easily accessible. There are a variety of open green spaces within 500 yards and the A3 is 1 mile away.
