Becheberie, Charlecote, Warwick

Guide Price £495,000

An attractive and well-presented three/four bedroom semi-detached house, occupying a generous plot in the highly regarded village of Charlecote, near Warwick, with delightful open countryside views to the rear. The spacious and versatile accommodation includes a particularly generous dual-aspect living room and an excellent fitted dining kitchen, with a utility room and cloakroom/shower room off. A second ground-floor reception room is currently used as a double bedroom. The first floor has three bedrooms and a shower room. Outside, an extensive block-paved driveway provides ample off-road parking and access to the attached garage, while the good-sized, established rear garden features a lawn, paved seating areas, mature planting and a timber garden shed. Energy Rating: D.

Location

Becheberie sits in the highly regarded village of Charlecote, a designated Conservation Area best known for historic Charlecote Park, the magnificent Elizabethan country house and deer park now cared for by the National Trust. The village also has a parish church, hotel and garden centre with a popular café. Everyday amenities are available in nearby Wellesbourne, including a large Sainsbury's supermarket, while Stratford-upon-Avon, Warwick and Leamington Spa provide a wider range of shopping, leisure and cultural facilities. The M40 is approximately four miles away, providing convenient access to Birmingham, London and the wider motorway network.

Frontage

The property occupies a generous frontage adjacent to the village hall, approached over a substantial block-paved driveway providing ample off-road parking and access to the garage. Mature trees, hedging and established planting create an attractive, leafy setting.
