
The Oval, Dymchurch, Kent
Romney Marsh
£550,000

Bedrooms: 3 | Bathrooms: 1 | Receptions: 2

Dating back to approximately 1900, this impressive three-bedroom detached home is a rare find in such a sought-after location near the Sea Wall. Offered with no onward chain, the property retains much of its original character while sitting on a generous, private plot.

The entrance hall makes a great first impression, featuring an original stained-glass front door and stairs to the first floor. The lounge is a standout room—spacious and bright with an open fireplace and two sets of French doors that lead directly onto the verandah. There is a separate, double-aspect dining room providing plenty of space for entertaining, alongside a modern kitchen/breakfast room with garden access and a practical utility room.

On the first floor are three well-proportioned double bedrooms and a family bathroom. A unique feature of this home is the tower; accessed via a separate staircase, it offers a fantastic vantage point with panoramic views across the sea—an ideal spot for a home office or a quiet retreat.

The house sits centrally within its plot, surrounded by established, wrap-around gardens that offer a high degree of privacy. To the side, there is a detached garage and ample off-road parking.

Positioned just a short stroll from the Sea Wall and within easy reach of local amenities, this is a fantastic opportunity to secure a substantial period home in a prime coastal spot.
