This individually styled detached true bungalow offers a rare blend of modern comfort and semi-rural charm, set on a generous plot of around 0.2 acres. Thoughtfully extended and updated, it provides flexible accommodation that can be arranged as two or three bedrooms, complemented by a striking open-plan kitchen and family room at the heart of the home. The property also benefits from solar panels with battery storage, enhancing its energy efficiency and sustainability. Its quirky character sets it apart from anything else nearby, with unique decorative touches – including feature dragons perched on the roof apexes – giving the property a distinctive personality that is sure to capture attention.

The accommodation spans around 1,563 sq ft (including the garage) and is flexible in how to use the accommodation, as the current owners use it as 2 bedrooms, but it could also be utilised as 3 bedrooms, making the property suitable for several possible buyers needs. The accommodation in brief includes: spacious entrance hall, bedrooms one and two, family bathroom, lounge / third bedroom, amazing open plan kitchen family room with doors opening out to the rear garden, walk-in pantry, separate utility / laundry room with stable door opening to the rear garden and a two piece WC completed the accommodation. NB: The property also benefits from underfloor heating in the extension part of the accommodation.

The property sits on a generous plot of around 0.2 acres and is approached via a wide gravelled driveway with a gated entrance, offering excellent kerb appeal and ample off-road parking. A detached garage with an electric up-and-over door provides further secure parking, or useful storage. The garage benefits from light, power and plumbing. To the rear, the home enjoys a private, mature garden that is not overlooked, featuring a paved sun terrace that steps down to an established lawn framed by a variety of plants, trees and shrubs. A further gravelled patio area sits at the end of the garden, ideal for additional seating, all enclosed within a well-kept fenced perimeter.
