

Enjoying a village setting and forming part of a small cul de sac of 5 homes is this well-presented detached home. The property has undergone improvement and updating whilst still offering the opportunity for an incoming purchaser to add their own identity. The 4 bedrooms are complimented by an impressive 21' living room with open fireplace and double doors which open to the patio terrace and the south facing garden.

Ideally positioned within walking distance of village amenities and countryside walks, the property will appeal to purchasers seeking a village position with excellent access to Reading town centre, M4, University and business parks. The well-planned home further benefits from no onward chain complications.
