As you might expect from a property of such heritage, character and period features abound throughout. The ground floor accommodation comprises a living room with a feature Inglenook fireplace, a kitchen/breakfast room now in need of updating, a modern shower room and a rear hallway, with two double bedrooms to the first floor and a spacious loft room. The property also benefits from a newly-installed gas boiler and enjoys a private south-facing rear garden as well as an allocated parking space. Being sold with the advantage of no onward chain, an early viewing of this unique and charming historical home comes highly recommended.
