This characterful 'Tudor-style' property is arranged over three well-planned floors, offering flexible and spacious accommodation ideal for modern family living. The home provides four bedrooms and two bathrooms, with a flowing open plan feel to the ground floor. There is a impressive south facing rear garden extending some 150 ft in length with the added benefit of a tucked away home office.

Positioned to the north of the town, the property is conveniently located within an easy walk of the station, making it particularly well suited for commuters. The surrounding area is established and residential in character, with a mix of attractive period homes and a welcoming neighbourhood feel.

Parking is on-street only, with no designated or allocated parking spaces.

Viewing

By appointment with Norgans Estate Agents.

LOCATION

Just to the north of the town centre, this is a very popular area, with well established character homes in abundance reminiscent of many London streets. The rail station is under a mile as is the town centre. Locally, the fabulous Victoria pub is renowned for its fabulous food, atmosphere and regular music events. There are numerous cut throughs to the station and town once you are familiar with the area.

THE PROPERTY

Not only is this a great looking home, it really delivers on space. The loft has been thoughtfully converted with seamless introduction of new staircase accessing the top floor master bedroom suite complete with large bathroom. The first floor offers three further good size bedrooms and a bathroom. Open plan living room and dining kitchen open on to stunning rear gardens. Externally, a resin based patio space with raised planters adjoin the house. There is a gated right of way for this house across its neighbours' rear but no right of way through this part offering fabulous added privacy. The garden seems to go on and on until you arrive at the oh so cool work from home cabin.
