The popular sailing towns of Dartmouth and Salcombe within easy reach.

DESCRIPTION

Rack Park Cottage is believed to have once served as the local toll house, with origins dating back 100's of years. Predominantly built from stone beneath a fibre cement slate roof, the property has been sympathetically modernised and extended over time. Conveniently situated in the centre of Kingsbridge, between Derby Road and Rack Park Road, the cottage enjoys a larger than average garden which has been thoughtfully landscaped by the current owners. This rare combination of period character and substantial, well-maintained gardens is likely to appeal to a wide range of buyers.

ACCOMMODATION

The property is approached via a gate from Rack Park Road, along a paved pathway leading to the entrance door and tiled hall. Off the hall lies a spacious utility room, fitted with a WC and wash hand basin, and offering space and plumbing for a washing machine. The room also houses the Viessmann gas-fired combi boiler.

The kitchen is positioned to the southeast and features a tiled floor, a range of base-level units, and space for a three-quarter sized dishwasher. A freestanding dual-fuel cooker with double electric fan oven and four-ring gas hob is included. There is access to an insulation loft area for additional storage. A door opens from here to the outside patio.

From the entrance hall, a further door opens to Bedroom 2, a double room with a built-in wardrobe and a disused chimney and fireplace. A double-glazed window overlooks the road.

The sitting room, located in the original part of the house, retains much of its period charm, with thick stone walls, a fireplace with brick and slate hearth, and a wood-burning stove. An understairs cupboard offers additional storage. Stairs rise from this room to the first-floor landing, which retains its original exposed floorboards.

From the landing, a door leads to the family bathroom, fitted with a mixertap shower over the bath and tiled walls. Adjacent lies Bedroom 3, currently arranged as a single room but capable of accommodating a small double bed. This room includes a built-in wardrobe beside the chimney breast and a single-glazed window overlooking the garden.

At the far end of the landing, stairs rise to the principal bedroom. This spacious double has shelving to the side of the chimney breast, room for a freestanding wardrobe, and a double-glazed window.

GARDEN & GROUNDS

A particular feature of Rack Park Cottage are the extensive gardens, lying to the southeast of the property and securely enclosed by fencing. The gardens have been carefully landscaped to create a series of distinct areas, with lawns, gravelled and paved seating terraces, and a productive growing area with vegetable beds, composting space, shed, and a greenhouse.

The planting includes a wonderful selection of trees and shrubs, among them apple and olive trees, camellias, and azaleas, providing year-round colour and interest.

To one side of the main paved patio is a versatile workshop with an exposed stone wall, workbench, and power connected. The current owners have cleverly added a roof between the workshop and house to form a sheltered and practical covered area, perfect for storage or enjoying the outdoors in less favourable weather.

The single off road parking space is located to the side of Rack Park Cottage adjacent to its northern boundary, just off Rack Park Road.
