This magnificent detached family home has been meticulously maintained and thoughtfully enhanced by the current owners, creating an exceptional home that effortlessly combines style, space and practicality. One of only a select few of this impressive design, the property offers beautifully presented accommodation throughout with high-quality finishes, contemporary décor and premium fixtures and fittings creating a luxurious yet welcoming feel.

At the heart of the home is a stunning extended kitchen, breakfast and family room featuring a central island, quality integrated appliances, a separate utility room and wide bi-folding doors opening onto the garden, making it an outstanding space for both everyday family life and entertaining. Complementing this are an elegant lounge, a separate dining room and a versatile ground floor study or fourth bedroom, served by a stylish contemporary shower room. Upstairs, a spacious galleried landing leads to three generous double bedrooms, all thoughtfully designed with modern family living in mind. The impressive principal suite benefits from fitted wardrobes and a beautifully appointed en-suite shower room, while the remaining bedrooms are served by a luxurious family bathroom complete with both a bath and separate shower. Finished to an exceptional standard throughout, every room showcases the care and investment made by the current owners, with quality materials, tasteful styling and meticulous attention to detail ensuring this is a home ready to move straight into and enjoy from day one.

Outside, the property continues to impress with a beautifully landscaped west-facing rear garden, offering a series of stylish seating and entertaining areas designed to make the most of the afternoon and evening sunshine. Whether hosting friends around the outdoor bar, relaxing beside the fire pit or enjoying family time on the generous patio, this private outdoor space is every bit as impressive as the interior. With driveway parking, an integral garage, outstanding kerb appeal and a highly sought-after location, this truly is a prime modern family home that delivers on every level and simply must be viewed to be fully appreciated.
