DESCRIPTION

Set well back from the road behind a large front garden with a mature screening hedgerow and private driveway, this delightful semi-detached cottage offers an abundance of charm and traditional character.

Constructed with Flemish bond brick elevations beneath a pitched and hipped roof finished in black glazed pan tiles, the property displays classic cottage appeal with sash windows to the front elevation enhance the aesthetic.

Ground Floor

A welcoming entrance hallway features a staircase rising to the first floor, with a useful cloak hanging area and storage cupboard beneath.

The sitting room enjoys views over the front garden through a sash window and includes a brick fireplace with timber mantle and fitted shelving to either side. A panel-glazed window provides borrowed light into the adjoining spacious dining/living room, which boasts another brick fireplace with timber mantle and wood-burning stove. A large double-glazed window overlooks the rear garden, creating a bright and inviting space.

The galley kitchen is fitted with a Shaker-style range of storage cupboards, laminate work surfaces, and wall-mounted shelving. A white enamel one-and-a-half bowl sink unit sits beneath the window, and there are provisions for a gas cooker and plumbing for a washing machine.

From the rear lobby, which includes a useful storage cupboard, a double-glazed door opens onto the rear garden. The ground floor bathroom comprises a panelled bath, hand basin, WC, and decorative tiled surrounds.

First Floor

A galleried landing leads to the three bedrooms.

The principal bedroom overlooks the front garden and features a sash window and cast-iron ornamental fireplace.

The second bedroom includes a double-glazed window to the side and a connecting door to bedroom three, which houses the gas-fired central heating boiler within a built-in cupboard and enjoys views over the rear garden.

A separate WC and hand basin complete the accommodation.

Outside

A driveway provides off road parking and access to the front garden. Attached to the side of the property is a timber garden shed with electric supply and direct access to the rear garden with screening hedgerow and wealth of shrubs.
