A fine late 19th Century three storey farmhouse providing spacious four bedroomed accommodation and situated within the village Conservation Area. The property has a substantial frontage to Main Street and a pleasant garden surrounding the house. Whilst some modernisation is required the house offers a wealth of character and charm.

The accommodation provides, on the ground floor, a porch entrance, entrance hall, living room, dining room, family room, office, kitchen and rear entrance porch. The first floor provides a landing with two double sized bedrooms, a family bathroom and separate WC. A wide and easy winding staircase leads to the second floor with Bedrooms Three and Four, both double size and each with gable windows. Externally there is an outbuilding with utility room, outside WC and freezer room. Central heating is oil fired with an external boiler. The windows are sealed unit double glazed in wood frames.

The village of Egmanton is an attractive place to live. There is a variety of period property, farmhouses and only small scale development within the village. Tuxford (2 miles) provides an excellent range of amenities including a primary school, the well regarded Tuxford Academy secondary school, local shops and a Co-operative supermarket. Access points to the A1 trunk road, north and south, are within 2 miles approximately. Newark on Trent is approximately 12 miles to the south and on the main East Coast railway line. Train services from Newark Northgate to London King's Cross are approximately 75 minutes.

The property is constructed with brick elevations under a slate roof. There is a later extension to the property with a flat mineralised felt covered roof. The following accommodation is provided:
