LOCATION

This property fronts onto Old Lane, a one way road which leads from East Lane to Main Street.

Sigglesthorpe is a charming Holderness village with a close-knit community and a parish population of approximately 400 (2001 census). The village enjoys a highly convenient location, lying within comfortable commuting distance of the city of Hull (around 14 miles) and the historic market town of Beverley (approximately 10 miles). Local amenities within the village include a well-regarded primary school and a village church, while a far wider range of shops, leisure facilities, and services can be found just a short drive away in the popular seaside town of Hornsea.

This combination of rural village charm and easy access to town and coastal amenities makes Sigglesthorpe an appealing choice for a range of buyers.
