Walkthrough

The property is approached via a tarmac driveway bordered by neatly laid gravel and an area of lawned front garden. An attractive porch sits beside a useful double-doored storage area and opens into a welcoming entrance space that immediately sets the tone for the home, with a feature stone wall, triple-width windows and wood-effect flooring enhancing its character. The porch also serves well as a practical boot room, with space for seating.

From here, the hallway runs alongside the staircase and connects the principal ground floor rooms, with the same wood-style flooring continuing to create a warm and cohesive feel. A sliding door opens to the snug, while further doors lead to the sitting room and kitchen–dining room. A downstairs WC and under-stairs storage are also accessed from this area. To the left, the sitting room extends the full length of the property, forming a versatile and generously proportioned space that could be arranged into distinct living and working zones if desired. Dual-aspect windows to the front and rear, along with French doors opening onto the patio, draw in excellent natural light. A feature fireplace with a wooden lintel provides a focal point and adds to the room’s character.

To the right, the snug offers a more intimate and cosy environment, featuring a characterful brick inglenook fireplace with an inset wooden lintel. This flexible room works equally well as a home office, playroom or quiet reading and television space.

The heart of the home lies in the open-plan kitchen–dining room, which has been well appointed to a high-specification finish. The kitchen area includes quartz work surfaces, a Rangemaster classic oven with electric hob, and a white porcelain double butler sink. A central island provides additional storage and workspace, complemented by a range of fitted units and space for a full-size fridge-freezer. Wood-effect flooring runs throughout, enhancing the sense of continuity within the space.

The adjoining utility room provides further practicality, with additional quartz worktops, storage, a white ceramic undermount sink, and space and plumbing for laundry appliances.

The dining area is well-proportioned, comfortably accommodating a family dining table along with additional furniture, and opens through to a bright garden room extension. This delightful space features full-width glazing, allowing natural light to flood in while offering views over the garden. A door provides direct access outside, while the room itself offers an ideal setting for home working, reading or
