GUIDE PRICE £370,000

An individual detached dormer bungalow which provides a deceptively spacious level of well-presented and attractive accommodation, situated within a pleasant plot set well-off Whitby Road. Whernside was built in around 1960 and provides a good range of well-proportioned and versatile accommodation over two floors which in total amounts to 1,217 square feet in total.

In brief the property provides the following: entrance hall, front facing sitting room, large breakfast kitchen, dining area and a rear facing garden room. There are up to three bedrooms in all: a large main ground floor bedroom and separate bathroom. Upstairs is a further double bedroom and an occasional single third bedroom and further shower room. The house is fully double glazed and has gas fired central heating, the property currently scores a D for energy efficiency.

Well established gardens lie to both sides and there is plenty of parking to be found on the driveway to the side and within the timber single garage.

Pickering is a bustling market town, famous for its castle and steam railway, and located on the southern boundary of the North York Moors National Park and close to the heritage coastline. The town offers a wide range of amenities, including primary and secondary school, sport centre, restaurants, public houses and an array of retailers.
