Property Description

A spacious three-bedroom property offering excellent potential for buyers looking to put their own stamp on a home. The accommodation comprises of a generous living room, a kitchen, three well-proportioned bedrooms, and a family bathroom.

The property has benefited from some renovation work, with improvements already made to certain areas of the home. However, further modernisation and finishing works are still required, providing an excellent opportunity for purchasers to add value and tailor the property to their own tastes and requirements.

Ideal for family living, entertaining, or creating a separate dining room, home office, or playroom. Outside, the property benefits from a rear garden and offers plenty of scope for enhancement.

Also deal for first-time buyers, families, or investors, this home combines generous accommodation with the potential to create a modern and comfortable living space.
