Property Details

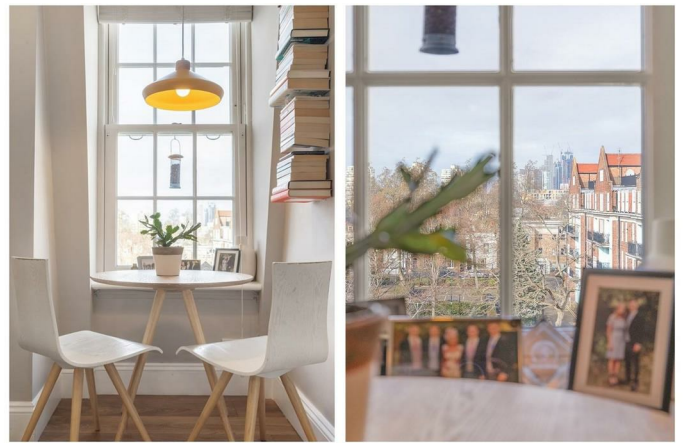

A beautifully presented one double bedroom apartment, peacefully positioned within an attractive period purpose-built development just off Ferndale Road. Tucked away on the fourth floor with leafy views over the communal gardens, this bright home offers a rare blend of tranquillity, community and city convenience. Flooded with natural light through large sash windows, the open-plan reception features hardwood flooring, space to dine and a stylish kitchen with white gloss cabinetry, generous worktops, integrated appliances and excellent storage. The spacious double bedroom provides ample room for wardrobes, whilst a contemporary bathroom completes the home. Further benefits include newly installed windows (February 2025) and a full electrical rewire (August 2023). Residents enjoy optional off-street parking, secure bike storage, landscaped gardens, an outdoor gym, allotments and a thriving community centre hosting seasonal events, creating a genuinely neighbourly atmosphere within this sought-after development.
