Nestled in the charming Maida Vale area of London, Ashworth Mansions presents a splendid opportunity to acquire a delightful apartment on Elgin Avenue. This well regarded red brick mansion block, built in the early 1900s, boasts a rich history and character that is sure to appeal to discerning buyers.

The apartment features four spacious bedrooms, two with en suite bathrooms, providing ample room for family living or accommodating guests. The welcoming reception room opens directly onto the private communal gardens which are well manicured throughout the year.

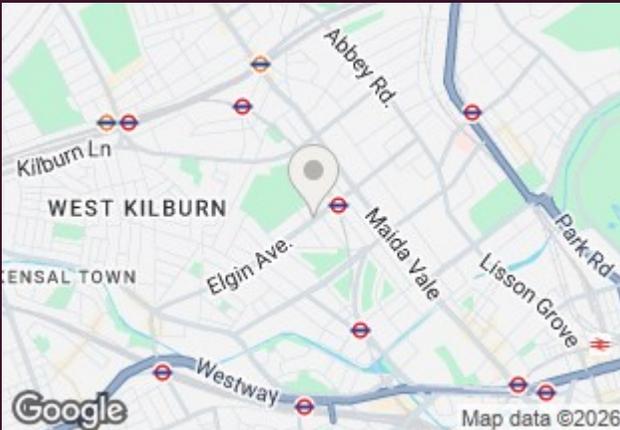

The surrounding streets, including Elgin Avenue and Lauderdale Parade, are lined with delightful cafes, bakeries, and boutique shops, ensuring that all your daily needs are within easy reach. For those who enjoy the outdoors, the picturesque canals nearby provide a lovely setting for leisurely walks, boating, or simply relaxing by the water.

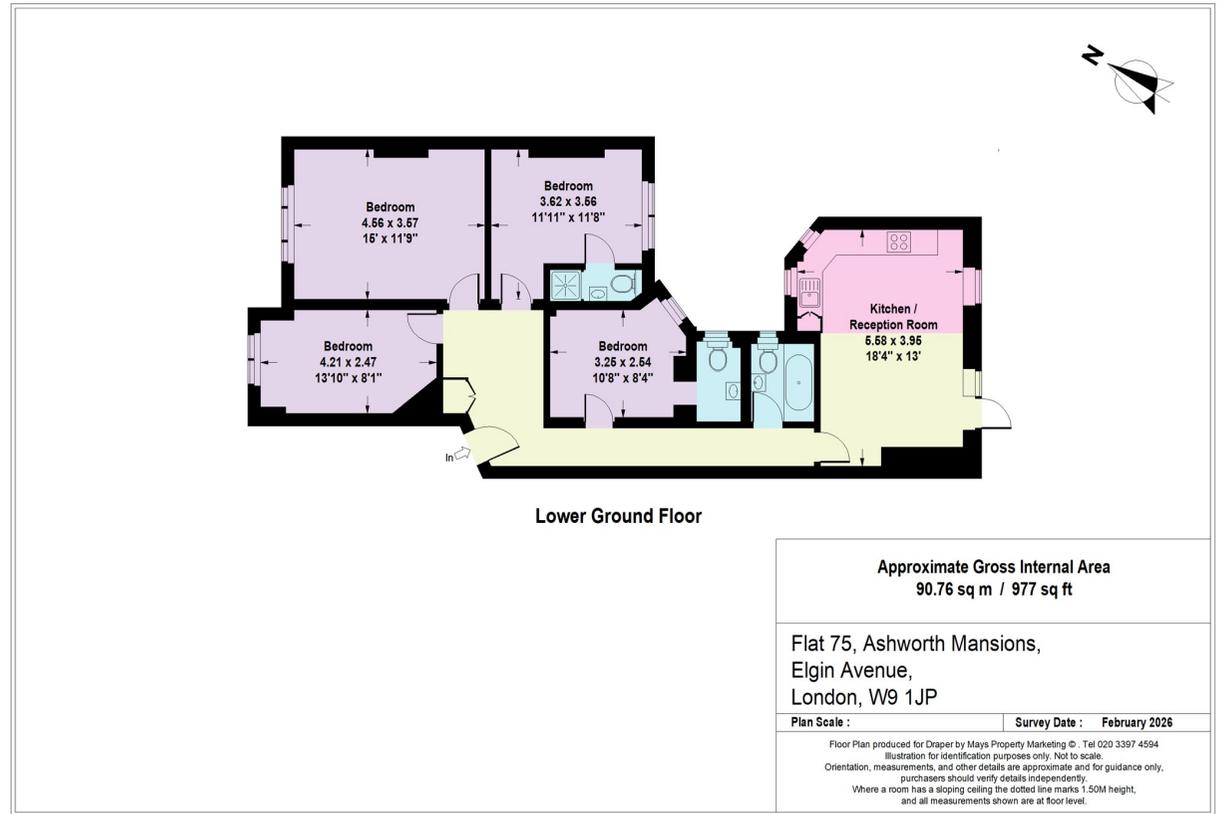

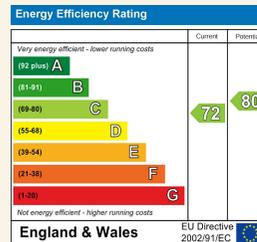

Easy access to Warwick Avenue and Maida Vale stations for the Bakerloo Line, Westbourne Park for the Hammersmith and City and Circle Lines and just a short journey to Paddington for the Heathrow Express make this property incredibly well connected for central London and beyond.

This apartment in Ashworth Mansions is not just a home; it is a lifestyle choice in one of London's most sought after neighbourhoods. With its blend of historical charm and modern convenience, this property is a must-see for anyone looking to embrace the best of city living.
