

Marketfield Way, Redhill

£1,450 Per Month

A smart, low-maintenance home in a prime central setting. Whether you're commuting daily or simply enjoy having everything within walking distance, this apartment delivers convenience without compromise. Available to let through Ralph James – early viewing strongly advised.

A sharply finished one-bedroom apartment set within Redhill's iconic Picture House development, offering modern open-plan living, integrated appliances and secure entry. Positioned moments from Redhill station, The Light cinema and the town's restaurants, it's a well-connected home designed for convenience and contemporary comfort.

Please note: the photography used for marketing purposes is taken from the development's show apartment and is intended to provide an indication of specification and finish. The layout, aspect and internal features of the available flat may differ.
