DESCRIPTION

This period end terraced family home has been well maintained over the years and represents an exciting opportunity to remodel to individual taste.

The accommodation is typical of the era with plenty of the original character and charm still evident. Towards the front of the property a separate sitting room benefits from a focal point of a living flame gas fire. Towards the rear is a separate dining room with gas fire and window overlooking the rear courtyard garden. The ground floor accommodation is completed by the breakfast kitchen fitted with a comprehensive range of lightwood units and with door to the side. From the kitchen there is also access to the cellars providing a main chamber with adjacent hallway storage area. The cellars are ripe for conversion subject to the relevant permissions being obtained.

To the first floor there are three bedrooms serviced by the family bathroom/WC fitted.

Externally to the front of the property gated access leads onto the courtyard garden whilst to the rear and accessed via kitchen the gardens incorporate a paved courtyard area with gardens beyond. There is also access to an external store and WC.

The location is ideal being within easy reach of Altrincham town centre and with John Leigh park on the doorstep and also lying in the catchment area of highly regarded primary and secondary schools.

A deceptively spacious home where viewing is essential to appreciate the accommodation on offer.
