About the property

This impressive period home has a tone of refined quality and is thoughtfully modernised, keeping original architectural details throughout. Enter via front steps through a striking European oak front door into the large entrance hall with original parquet flooring and stained-glass window. The ground floor offers three reception rooms, each beautifully proportioned and ideal for both family living and entertaining. Each sitting room has a period fireplace, one impressive Edwardian and one charming 1930s, and moulded ceilings. Both enjoy sea views. The dining room is enhanced by an original art nouveau fireplace and the elegant tiled floor flows into the adjacent kitchen. The kitchen is a timeless shaker style, with granite worktops, integrated appliances and two under-mounted sinks. A separate utility room and ground floor WC provide additional facilities. Upstairs, the home continues to impress with five large double bedrooms and a modern family bathroom. Bedroom 2 has a wall of fitted wardrobes and sea views. Bedroom 1 has a balcony with sea views and, along with bedrooms 3 and 4, has the original Edwardian cast iron fireplaces. Bedroom 5 is currently set up as an office. An AML fee of £80(including VAT)is chargeable once an
