Presented to the market with no onward chain, this spacious first floor flat is ideally positioned in the sought-after area of south Rustington, West Sussex. The property boasts a bright and generously proportioned lounge, offering direct access to a private west-facing balcony-perfect for enjoying afternoon sunshine and evening sunsets.

Accommodation includes two double bedrooms, providing ample space for family or guests, alongside a modern shower room and WC for added convenience. Residents benefit from a practical approach to parking, with general resident and visitor parking available, as well as the additional advantage of a garage.

The location is especially enviable, nestled between Rustington's vibrant village centre-home to a variety of shops, eateries and local amenities-and the picturesque seafront, with both destinations only a short stroll away. Local bus routes pass just outside, offering effortless links to the surrounding areas and ensuring ease of travel.

With its combination of a prime location, spacious living and no onward chain, this desirable flat is available for immediate viewing. To truly appreciate all it has to offer, arrange a visit today.
