Town • Country • Coast

An individual South facing detached house situated in a convenient location on the outskirts of the town. The reverse level accommodation offers 3 bedroom and 3 reception rooms. The property features ample off-road parking, an integral garage and low-maintenance gardens which includes a first floor covered patio.

The accommodation includes 3 spacious double bedrooms, all found on the ground floor where there is also the family bathroom with a double shower enclosure. You enter the property via a covered porch at the front into a spacious open hallway with a Teak spiral staircase to the first floor. From here there is a door into the large integral garage which has an electric up and over door. There is a useful utility room which has space for appliances.

On the first floor there is a spacious open landing with a cloakroom and WC. A door leads into the open-plan kitchen and breakfast room which has a walk in pantry/larder. A door leads into a spacious dining room with patio doors leading out to the patio area which is perfect to sit out in a sheltered space, ideal for al fresco dining.

From here, patio doors lead into the living room which is a generous main reception room with a fireplace with a gas wood burner style fire. There is an additional home office or bedroom which has endless possibilities.

There is a driveway at the front with off-road parking for numerous vehicles, leading to the garage. A pathway provides access around the side and rear of the property with steps at the front leading up to the first floor patio area.

The property has central heating and is ideally situated for the town and local amenities.

Situation

Launceston is an ancient town steeped in History with the imposing Launceston castle overlooking the town and surrounding area. Referred to as 'the gateway to Cornwall' Launceston is centred one mile west of the River Tamar, which constitutes almost the entire border between the Cornish peninsula and Devon, the A30 is ideally located on the fringe of Launceston connecting to the rest of Cornwall with great access to the beautiful Coastline alongside the City's of Plymouth and Exeter in the other direction. The town itself offers a variety of individual businesses from boutiques to fine food shops, blending with occasional national outlets including Tesco, WH Smith and Costa coffee. Local facilities include a leisure centre, medical facilities and well regarded primary and secondary schooling. Did you know? The very impressive Launceston Castle dates from Norman times and before the 13th century AD Launceston used to be the capital of the Earldom of Cornwall. Launceston has given its name to other places in the world including Australia and the Cornish name is Lannstefan, Lannstefan is Cornish for Church of St Stephen.
