Detached double bay fronted period house offering versatile accommodation and standing on a good size plot of just over quarter an acre, situated in this popular area close to the Town centre and mainline railway station. Presently arranged as five/seven bedrooms with two reception rooms, sun loggia, kitchen, large cellar, bathroom with separate wc and ground floor shower room/wc. Although benefitting from gas fired central heating and double glazed windows the property is now in need of updating and offers great versatility to rearrange the accommodation to suit and even extend.

Externally the property stands on a good size secluded plot which is set well back from the road with a walled front garden and featuring a large walled South rear garden. The driveway at the front provides plenty of parking for several vehicles.
