** GUIDE PRICE £450,000 - £475,000 **

Occupying a prestigious position within the historic Grade II listed Epperstone Manor, this exceptional apartment offers a rare opportunity to own a home of remarkable character and significance. Forming one of just seven exclusive residences created from the conversion of this landmark Victorian manor house, the property effortlessly combines elegant period features with modern-day comfort and convenience.

Occupying one of the manor's most impressive former reception rooms, the apartment is rich in history and boasts a stunning Grade II listed decorative ceiling, an extraordinary feature that reflects the grandeur and craftsmanship of the building's past. Generous proportions, impressive ceiling heights and beautiful original detailing create a home that is both elegant and unique.

One of the property's standout features is its private south-facing terrace, providing the perfect space for outdoor dining, entertaining or simply enjoying the far-reaching views across the beautiful Dover Beck Valley. Residents also benefit from access to extensive communal lawned gardens, allowing further enjoyment of the peaceful surroundings and stunning countryside setting.

The apartment also benefits from a garage and allocated parking, offering practicality alongside its wealth of character.

Located within the highly desirable conservation village of Epperstone, the property enjoys a wonderful balance of rural tranquillity and convenience, with easy access to Nottingham, Southwell and a range of local amenities.

Offering breathtaking views, exclusive surroundings and a fascinating history, this is a truly special home that must be viewed to be fully appreciated.

A private pedestrian walkway which leads through an imposing wrought iron stone pillared gated entrance connects to the exclusive grounds of the Manor and leads to:
