 No Chain **

Tucked away on Emerys Road is this well-maintained two-bedroom townhouse, perfect for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors. The property has been freshly painted throughout and features new carpets on the first floor, creating a bright and welcoming feel. The ground floor offers a practical layout with a fitted kitchen, separate WC, and a light filled lounge/diner. Upstairs, there are two well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside, the property benefits from a designated parking space to the front. To the rear, there is a private garden mainly laid to lawn, complemented by a paved patio seating area and gated access to the alleyway, offering both privacy and convenience.

Emerys Road is ideally situated for everyday convenience, with a variety of local shops, cafes, and services all within easy reach. Families will benefit from nearby schools and childcare options, while good transport links make commuting into Nottingham straightforward. The area also offers plenty of green spaces and leisure facilities, providing a perfect balance of practicality and lifestyle
