 ChurchillsBushey

Set within a sought after, highly desirable neighbourhood where few houses come up for sale, this beautifully maintained 1960s 3 bedroom semi detached home delivers space, style, and superb flexibility for modern family living. From the welcoming entrance hall, the home flows effortlessly through three generous reception rooms, enhanced by warm engineered wood flooring, creating ideal spaces for both relaxing and entertaining. The light filled and stylish kitchen, finished with solid wood worktops, connects seamlessly to a versatile breakfast room and utility area, while a substantial brick built, double glazed conservatory completes the living space, overlooking a large, private rear garden with no properties overlooking it! Upstairs, three well proportioned carpeted bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom are complemented by excellent potential for a full loft conversion (stpp). With gas central heating and double glazing throughout, a garage, and a triple width off-street driveway, comfort and convenience are assured. Just a short walk from shops, well regarded schools, transport links, and Bushey Village, and offered with no upper chain, this exceptional home presents an outstanding opportunity—contact the selling agent today to arrange your viewing.
