FINISHED TO A REMARKABLE TURNKEY SPECIFICATION

This home distinctive and beautifully appointed home extending to approximately 1,151 sq ft, offering flexible accommodation and exceptional design within the landmark Chapel conversion. Finished to a remarkable turnkey specification, the property centres around a stunning open-plan kitchen, dining and living space beneath soaring vaulted ceilings and exposed timber beams. Abundant natural light pours through the building's original architectural openings, highlighting the carefully curated blend of modern finishes and period detailing.

*Please note: The property forms part of a newly constructed development and a separate Land Registry title has not yet been issued. The Council Tax band has not yet been assessed and is therefore to be confirmed. Further details will be provided during the conveyancing process, and purchasers should rely on their own legal enquiries in relation to title and all associated rights and obligations.
