ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A gorgeous Victorian townhouse over four floors in the popular Brockley Conservation Area.

For the busy commuter Brockley Overground is a couple of hundred metres away and for those thinking of schools, the choice nearby is both Good & Outstanding - Ofsted.

FURTHER DETAILS

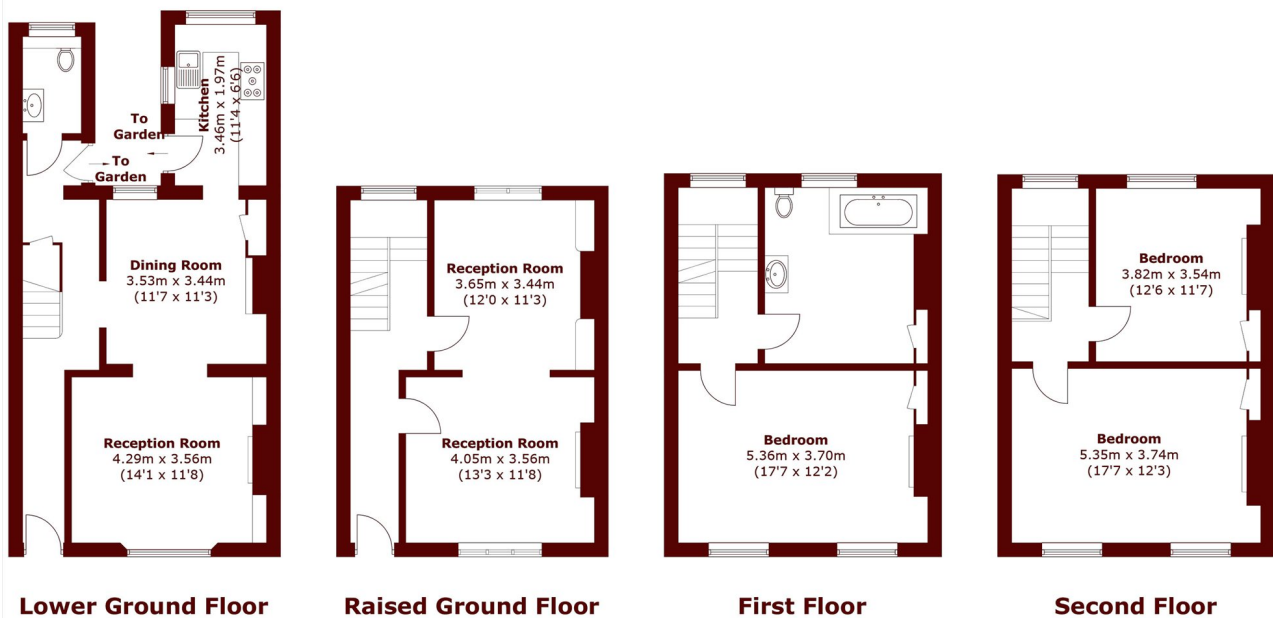

This style of home always proves popular, with the high ceilings and large windows, and this one has a lovely period feel, offering versatile living accommodation, currently arranged as four reception rooms and three bedrooms with a huge bathroom.

On the ground floor is an additional cloakroom and handy utility area. To the front a good size front garden welcomes you, whilst to the rear, there is a good size West facing mature garden.

The current owners have found themselves loving the home for 23 years.
