LongDescription

This fine, brick-built house was built around 25 years ago and has been well maintained over the years to provide very comfortable, versatile accommodation, ideal for a professional couple or young family in a cul-de-sac position.

The generous, downstairs living space has the advantage of two reception rooms, with a conservatory extension adding a second sitting or playroom. The kitchen is fitted in a classic, light wood Shaker style with a fitted oven, hob, extractor hood, fridge, freezer and space and plumbing for a dishwasher. There is ample space for a dining table and chairs for everyday use. Beside the kitchen, there is a useful downstairs cloakroom and a utility room with sink unit, space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer with further storage.

Upstairs, the original three bedrooms have been remodelled providing a dressing room for the principal room, which also has an en suite shower room with white suite. The dressing room could be readily reverted back to a bedroom, if preferred. The second bedroom is a good size and has been used as a home office and the family bathroom adjoins, fitted with a modern white suite.

Outside, the house has side by side parking for two cars leading to the garage and there is a small front shrub garden. Path leads to the left side of the house, with a personnel door into the garage, and beyond to the rear garden. The garden is paved for ease of maintenance and enjoys a sunny, south-westerly aspect.

Services: mains water, electricity, drainage and gas.
