IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Your own front door opens into a ground floor hallway, with a shower room conveniently positioned just off it. Beyond, the reception stretches across the ground floor, creating an expansive and flexible living space with plenty of room for relaxing, dining or working from home. Stairs rise from the reception to the first floor.

Upstairs, a central landing connects the rest of the home. The kitchen and dining room sits at the rear, with generous proportions, fitted cabinetry and room for a full-sized dining table. A door opens directly onto the rear balcony, giving you a welcome outdoor spot for morning coffee or summer evenings.

There are three bedrooms on this level, all well proportioned. One bedroom has its own balcony, while the other two offer plenty of flexibility for family life, guests or a dedicated workspace. The family bathroom is particularly spacious and includes both a bath and separate shower.

With two bathrooms, three bedrooms and substantial living space arranged across two floors, this is a home that feels easy to settle into and adaptable enough to change with you over time.

WHAT ELSE?

- Lloyd Park is within easy walking distance, with landscaped gardens, tennis courts, play areas and the William Morris Gallery.
- Walthamstow Central provides Victoria line and Overground services, while local bus routes connect the surrounding neighbourhoods.
- Hoe Street's cafés and restaurants are nearby, along with local favourites such as Chocolatine, The Bell and God's Own Junkyard.

WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I love living in Walthamstow – it's got such a great mix of things going on. Saturdays are my favourite, with the market in Lloyd Park full of fresh food, handmade bits, and plenty of friendly faces. The new Soho Theatre has brought amazing shows right to our doorstep, and if I fancy a pint, the Blackhorse Beer Mile breweries are perfect for a wander. When I need some fresh air, the Walthamstow Wetlands are just a short stroll away – all that greenery makes you completely forget you're in London. Plus, with brilliant transport links, it's so easy to hop on the Tube or Overground and be in Central London in no time at all".
