In Detail

Occupying the first floor of a quietly positioned maisonette, this carefully refurbished two bedroom apartment extends to approximately 778 sq ft and unfolds around a series of bright, considered living spaces.

A private terrace and generous rear garden provide an unexpected connection to the outdoors, extending the living spaces considerably during the warmer months.

The apartment is entered via a private stair rising to the first floor, where a wide central hallway draws natural light deep into the plan. At its centre is an expansive open-plan kitchen and dining room, conceived as the social heart of the home. Large windows illuminate a composition of pared-back cabinetry, integrated appliances and a substantial island that anchors the space. Materials have been selected with longevity and simplicity in mind, while the open arrangement lends itself equally well to everyday living and informal entertaining.

The bedrooms are quietly positioned and generously proportioned, each finished in soft neutral tones with understated detailing and ample natural light. A refined bathroom has been finished with tactile tiling and copper fittings, while a separate WC and dedicated utility area introduce a practical rhythm to the plan.

Externally, a private terrace descends to a notably large rear garden — an increasingly rare feature for an apartment of this kind. The garden offers both openness and privacy, with ample space for outdoor dining, planting and relaxing with friends and family.

Queen Mary Road is a well established residential setting characterised by its strong sense of community and proximity to local amenities, green spaces and transport connections into central London. The surrounding area has become increasingly sought after for its balance of neighbourhood character and accessibility.

No onward chain.
