SETTING THE SCENE

The property is approached from the roadway with stunning views of open fields and rolling countryside. The property is set back from the road with a white picket fenced frontage, laid to lawn with a patio walkway to the front door.

THE GRAND TOUR

Upon entering, the property immediately showcases a wealth of character features. Exposed wooden beams create a striking contrast against the white walls and skimmed ceilings, complemented by integrated spotlighting. The sitting room's focal point is an exposed brick fireplace housing a fully functional log burner. Built-in storage in the corner of the room provides practical functionality, before the room seamlessly flows into the open-plan kitchen, creating a sociable and versatile living space.

With ample room for a dining table, the kitchen features authentic floor tiling, skimmed ceilings with spotlights, and a range of light-finish floor-mounted cupboards, along with space for white goods. Double French doors lead from the kitchen to the garden room, which benefits from a newly plastered roof with lighting, tiled flooring, and a period walk-in storage area.

Ascending the metal spiral staircase to the carpeted first-floor landing, you will find an ideal study area. This room offers generous built-in storage and showcases exposed brick and wooden beams. The first bedroom benefits from a large window overlooking the front of the property and enjoys superb views. The final bedroom features integrated wardrobe space and an access door to the bathroom. Completing the accommodation is the family bathroom - this bright and airy room offers a three-piece suite with a bath and overhead shower. White tiling surrounds the bath, complemented by a glass splashback and a large electric heated towel rail add the finishing touches, along with the wood flooring.
