32 Delfur Road, Bramhall - Measurements previous from a floor plan

Description

Located on the fringes of the popular Dairyground residential development this 3 bedroom semi detached home is offered for sale with no vendor chain.

The property is positioned on a plot which offers driveway parking to the front, plus an integral garage which subject to the relevant permissions offers the clear potential for conversion if you wanted to add more living space to the accommodation. To the rear of the home there is an enclosed rear garden with lawn and patio.

Inside the property offers accommodation set over two levels - You first enter the home via the front porch and from there walk through to the main lounge area which has a window to the front aspect, feature fireplace to one wall, plus open way to the dining area. The dining area has patio doors leading out to the rear garden plus gives access into to the kitchen. Both the size of the garden and the kitchen being positioned at the rear of the accommodation adjacent to the dining room means the potential of creating open plan living is possible, be it within the current foot print or the potential of extending backwards perhaps. Upstairs the property has 3 bedrooms plus a family bathroom and separate WC as shown on our floor plans and photos.
