1 Barns Road, Warkworth NE65 0TS

Located in the historic village of Warkworth on the scenic Northumberland coast, this three-bedroom semi-detached house is ideal for families and offers superb living space. There are two reception rooms; the main living room features large windows and a fireplace with a multi-fuel stove, whilst the adjacent second reception room is currently used as a playroom but may also be used as a formal dining room. This room is linked to the living room through double doors, but also provides access to a conservatory at the rear. The dining kitchen is equipped with its own multi-fuel stove and provides a comfortable space for family meals. Also located downstairs, there is a W.C. for added convenience and a dedicated home office with a large walk-in storage cupboard, suited for remote work or study.

First floor accommodation includes two double bedrooms (one featuring built-in wardrobes) and a single bedroom, catering well to families. The house benefits from off-road parking and a generous garden, ideal for outdoor activities or relaxation. In addition to the two multi-fuel stoves, the house is warmed by gas central heating via a Worcester combi-boiler with radiators.

Warkworth itself is renowned for its medieval castle, sandy beaches, and a welcoming village atmosphere. Local amenities such as shops, cafés, and daily essentials are found on the high street, all within walking distance. The property is surrounded by attractive walking and cycling routes, providing excellent opportunities to explore the Northumberland countryside and coastline.

Families will find a choice of schools in the wider Morpeth area. For commuters, Alnmouth railway station is approximately a 10-minute drive, offering direct services to Newcastle and Edinburgh, with journey times of around 30 minutes and 1 hour 20 minutes respectively. The A1 is also easily accessible, connecting to regional destinations. This property combines village charm, proximity to natural and historic sites, and practical amenities for everyday living.
