The property could easily be further extended, and the extensive garden could provide an opportunity for the development of a further property, subject to planning consent.

As you approach the property, you are greeted by a frontage with a mature hedge, a lawned front garden, and a spacious driveway providing off-road parking for two cars, along with an integrated garage to the front of the property.

Step inside to a welcoming entrance hallway, providing access to a cloakroom and all principal rooms. The generously sized living/dining room features a large floor-to-ceiling window and two additional windows, which flood the room with natural light. The heart of the home is the extended kitchen, which features Italian floor tiles. It is fitted with a range of Magnet and Southern wall and base units in limed oak, integrated appliances, and ample worktop space. A table and chairs are currently located in the kitchen area, offering versatility in dining arrangements.

The bungalow offers two well-proportioned bedrooms. One has fitted Sharp wardrobes and bedside drawers, along with a long dressing table and three-way mirrors.

A cupboard provides extra storage and shelving space for laundry and towels, and a radiator for drying is very useful. This is located in the inner hallway, which leads to the bathroom and bedrooms.

The second double bedroom has a neat and tidy appearance, while the third single bedroom – currently used as a home office – offers flexibility as a bedroom or hobby space.

The accommodation is served by a family bathroom, complete with shower, bath, wash basin, WC, and modern tiling for a clean, stylish finish. An additional WC is located in the garage area, adding convenience to both outdoor and indoor spaces.
